Numb. 5052

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 16. to Saturday September 20. 1712.

Windsor, September 18.

THE following Addreſs from the Borough of Gatton, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Newland, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surry.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Gatton, in the County of Surry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WERE it poſſible for Your moſt Sacred Majeſty to Reign yet more Abſolutely in the Hearts of Your Loyal Subjects, Your late unparalleled Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your People the Terms upon which a Peace may be made, would very much encreaſe our dutiful Affection to ſo Wiſe and Gracious a Sovereign.

It being Your Majeſty's undoubted Prerogative to make Peace and War, what Words can expreſs the abundance of our Joy and Thankfulneſs on this Occaſion, when the Terms of Peace are in all reſpects ſo very Honourable and Advantageous to Great Britain?

The important Fortreſs of Dunkirk being actually delivered into Your Majeſty's Hands, ſecures our home Trade, and renders Your Majeſty the Arbiter of Europe; ſo that the longer continuance of this bloody and expenſive War, can be of no further Uſe, but only to ſupport the Ingratitude of Foreigners, and the pernicious Deſigns of Faction and Sedition at Home.

May Your Majeſty long live to enjoy as great Bleſſings as You diſpenſe, and always to be ſerved, as You now are, by a Wiſe, Faithful, and Uncorrupted Miniſtry, whoſe Sagacity is not to be baffled by any Artifices or Deſigns, and whoſe Courage and Reſolutions are not to be ſhaken by any Difficulties or Obſtructions.

May Your Majeſty defeat the wicked Contrivances of thoſe, who have ſo deſperately ſtruggled to traverſe Your pious Intentions; in the perfecting of which, and bringing them to a ſpeedy Iſſue, we will aſſiſt and ſupport Your Majeſty againſt all Oppoſers whatſoever.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Blechingly, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Richard Jewell, Gent, one of the principal Burghers of the ſaid Borough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the antient Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Blechingly, in the County of Surry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

PErmit us, among the great Numbers of Your moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy Agreement (at this Critical Juncture) between Your Majeſty and Your Parliament of Great Britain.

Which, we make no doubt, will in a very little time produce a laſting as well as an honourable Peace, notwithſtanding the reſtleſs Endeavours of ſome ill-deſigning Men to prolong this Expenſive War, by the frequent Attempts they have made to deprive Your Majeſty of Your juſt Prerogative.

As we always abhorr'd ſuch Practices, ſo we will do our utmoſt Endeavours to make Choice of ſuch Men who deteſt thoſe Damnable Principles, which has coſt this Nation already ſo much Blood and Treaſure.

The Impregnable Fortreſs of Dunkirk being delivered into Your Majeſty's Poſſeſſion, convinces us, that as Your Majeſty has had the greateſt Share in the War, ſo now You will have the Glory of being the Arbiter of the Peace of Europe.

We heartily wiſh Your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over us, and after that an eternal Crown of Glory.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Hanover, September 23. N. S. The Elector having by his Envoy given notice to the Magiſtrates of Hamburgh, that he would forbid all Communication between his Dominions and that City, in caſe they did not ſhut up the two Gates leading to the Dutchy of Holſtein, which is Infected with the Plague. They have ſent two Deputies to inform his Electoral Highneſs, that the Inhabitants of their Town muſt inevitably Starve, if they are not ſupply'd with Proviſions from Holſtein, ſince they are no longer furniſhed with any from the Dutchy of Bremen. Theſe Deputies have alſo Inſtructions to repreſent the Care that hath been taken to prevent the Diſtemper from ſpreading into that City, and to make ſome new Propoſals for their greater Security from the Contagion.

Hamburgh, September 23. N. S. The Daniſh Colonel who was ſent to the Czar and King Auguſtus, with an account of the Surrender of Staden, on his return from Pomerania was attack'd and dangerouſly wounded by a Party of Swedes from Wiſmar. General Welling is lately come to this Town, and intends to continue here Incognito for ſome time.

Utrecht, September 27. N. S. On the Twenty third the Plenipotentiaries of the States General deſired a Conference with thoſe of the Queen, which was held accordingly at the Earl of Strafford's Houſe. On the Twenty fourth their Lordſhips had one with thoſe of France, and Yeſterday about Noon was held another between the Miniſters of the Allies in the Townhouſe, as uſual, which being ended, the Plenipotentiaries of Great Britain retired into a Chamber apart with thoſe of the States. At Night their Lordſhips had a long Conference with the Imperial Miniſters at the Earl of Strafford's Houſe. Mareſchal D'Uxelles has declared that the Pretender never went by the Title of Duke of Glouceſter in France, where they were much ſurprized to read that Account in Foreign News Papers, the Authors of which invent Falſhoods to impoſe on the Publick. And for this reaſon, little Credit is given here to what is ſaid in one of thoſe Gazettes, that Eight thouſand Scotch have taken Arms to oppoſe the Government, eſpecially ſince the Letters from Great Britain make no mention of any Inſurrection in Her Majeſty's Dominions.

London, Sept. 19. On Monday Morning the Rt. Hon. Sidney Earl of Godolphin, died at St. Albans. He was raiſed to the Peerage by King Charles the Second, in the Year 1684, and about the ſame time was one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. In 1702, he was conſtituted Lord High Treaſurer of England, in which Employment he continued ſeveral Years. In 1704 he was inſtalled Night of the Garter; and in 1706 created Earl of Godolphin. He Married Margaret, the Daughter of Thomas Blague, Eſq; by whom he had Iſſue the Lord Ryalton his Succeſſor and only Child.

Whereas a Letter without date, ſign'd J. C. and directed to the Rt. Hon. the Lords Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain has been receiv'd, their Lordſhips are hereby pleaſed to give Notice to the Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter, that if he will ſend W. H. (mention'd in his Letter) to their Lordſhips at their Office near Whitehall, to make out what is alledged, he will have all fitting Encouragement and Protection.

A Letter dated the 15*th of September*, 1712, ſign'd B. H. being ſent by the General Poſt to one of the Members of the Navy Board, informing him of ſome Abuſes in one of Her Majeſty's Yards; theſe are to give Notice, that if the Perſon who Subſcribed the ſaid Letter, will come to their Office, and make out what is therein alledged, he ſhall receive all fitting Encouragement and Protection.

The Perſons appointed by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, for taking in the Tickets, and delivering out ſtanding Orders in lieu thereof in the Lottery of 1500000 l. for the Year 1711, give Notice, that on Wedneſday the 24*th of September Inſtant, between the Hours of* 8 in the Morning and one at Noon, they will deliver out at their Office or Place of Meeting, in Whitehall, the ſtanding Orders for all Tickets which have been entred with them for Orders, to the 31*ſt of July laſt incluſive; and ſo continue the Buſineſs of delivering out ſtanding Orders in exchange for ſuch Tickets, till Saturday the* 4*th of October following without Interruption. Wherefore the Perſons bringing Tickets to be deliver'd up in exchange for ſuch Orders, are deſir'd, for the readier diſpatch of their own Buſineſs, to diſpoſe their ſaid Tickets in the ſame Method, as near as may be, as they were entred for Orders. And it is further notified, that when the ten Days hereby intended to be employ'd in delivering out of Orders, ſhall be expir'd, Attendance will be given for entring Tickets (which ſhall not before have been entred for Orders) on Monday and Tueſday in every Week, and the Buſineſs of delivering out the aforeſaid Orders, will be continued the remaining four Days in every Week, 'till it ſhall be otherwiſe advertiz'd*

The Receivers for the Lottery for 1800000 l. being the 10 l. Tickets, give Notice to ſuch Adventurers as have not paid in their Fourth Payment, that the ſaid Payment is to be made at the Bank of England, on or before Wedneſday the 27*th Inſtant; and that if the ſaid Payment ſhall not be made on or* before